

Lunch News

Hello Sea turtle family, Starting Nov 2, and every Monday after that we will be serving papa Johns. Each slice will be $1.85. Papa Johns and everything they get with it will be charged as ala carte. Students must have money in their lunch accounts for Papa Johns. You can go to Paypams.com to add funds in your students' lunch account or send money in with your students *Papa Johns is not part of the free lunch program that is going on right now. *

Also Starting Nov. 5th and every Thursday after, PVPV students will now be able to purchase a cookie for .40. A lunch aide will let one class at a time come in line to purchase a cookie. All students must wear their mask when coming through the lunch line. Students will have lunch cards with their pin numbers to scan or they can verbally tell the cashier their number.

Also Starting Nov. 6th and every Friday after that will be ice-cream day at PVPV. A lunch aide will let one class at a time to come in line to purchase ice cream. All students must wear their mask when coming through the lunch line. Students will have lunch cards with their pin numbers to scan or they can verbally tell the cashier their number. Ice cream will be a choice of vanilla swirl with chocolate cup or a small ice cream sandwich. Ice cream will be $1.00.

If you have any questions or concerns you can reach me at 904-547-8576 or email me at Jessica.peto@stjohns.k12.fl.us. Thank You!